Career Pathway: Human Services

A career in human services requires certain skills and education depending on job requirements. Skills include preparing individuals that relates to family and human needs such as counseling and mental health services, family and community services, personal care, and consumer services.

Exposure Pathways

High School Courses

- Anatomy and Physiology
- AP Psychology
- Business Law 1

- Child Development
- Health and Wellness
- OCC 1 & 2

- Psychology
- Sociology

High School Clubs & Organizations

- Peer Mentoring
- FCA

- Take Charge
- Win With Wellness

- Student Ambassadors

Experience Pathways

College CTE Courses in High School

- Composition 1 & 2
- Oral Communication
- Intro to Psychology
- US History Since 1877

- Intro to Sociology
- Art Appreciation
- AP Art History 1 & 2

- Introduction to Human Services

Pursuit Pathways

Certificates/Diplomas

- Early Childhood Paraeducator
- Early Childhood Education

Associate Degrees

- Early Childhood Education
- Human Services

- Non-Profit Management

Bachelor Degrees

- Social Work
- Elementary Education
- Psychology

- Criminal Justice
- Early Childhood

Careers & Median Salary Information

Preschool Teacher $26,000
Childcare Worker $19,300
Funeral Service Manager $54,000
Social & Community Service Manager $54,300
Religious Activities & Education $42,000
Probation Officer $65,000
Social & Community Service Officer $54,300

Explore other Education & Training in the ICR Region

Explore other Careers in the ICR Region